

Character background builder

For more DM and player resources, go to <https://icastfireball.com.au>

Welcome to your character's backstory! This sheet will help you outline your character's motivations, attachments and history. The elements of a character's past are important for both player and the DM to be aware of as it helps create a sense of realism and consistency, as well as guide motivations for your character. It will also equip the DM to create engaging stories that blend your character's past with their present and future.

Player name:

What is your character's name?

How old is your character?

What would somebody see at first glance (i.e. height, weight, skin color, eye color, hair color, physique, race, and visible equipment)?

What additional attributes would be noticed upon meeting the character (i.e. Speech, mannerisms or personality quirks, marks or deformities)?

Where was your character born?

Where were you raised?

By whom were you raised?

Are they alive?

What do they do for a living?

Do they have any other family or friends?

What is your character's current marital status?

Do they have any kids?

Character background builder

For more DM and player resources, go to <https://icastfireball.com.au>

What is your character's alignment?

Do they have a religion (if at all)?

Do they have personal beliefs and/or a moral code?

Does your character have goals?

Why does your character adventure?

How does your character get along with others?

How does your character view his/her role as an adventurer? (e.g. face of the party, ranged combatant, survivalist, scout)

What class(es) do you plan on taking to achieve these ends? (it's understood these ends will likely evolve throughout the campaign)

Is there anything your character hates?

Is there anything your character fears? Do they have any secrets?

Character background builder

For more DM and player resources, go to <https://icastfireball.com.au>

Anything else you would like to add? | Space to write your backstory as a narrative